

Lawyers' Part in Winning War

Oklahoma Ably Represented on Legal Staff of Uncle Sam's Military Organization.

Oklahoma, in addition to contributing generously to the rank and file of the great American army which has been engaged in the world war, has had an also very unusual representation on the military legal staff of the war department. Seven members of the office of the judge advocate general of the army, the highest law office in the world, are lawyers who hail from Oklahoma. Lieutenant Colonel J. J. Hurley and Lieutenant Colonel J. J. Hurley are members of the office of the judge advocate general of the army, the highest law office in the world, are lawyers who hail from Oklahoma. Lieutenant Colonel J. J. Hurley and Lieutenant Colonel J. J. Hurley are members of the office of the judge advocate general of the army, the highest law office in the world, are lawyers who hail from Oklahoma.

As general counsel has been occupied with the duties of provost marshal general, General Ansell has been the head of this great military judicial system, and these Oklahoma lawyers have been the court-martial judges in the courts-martial. The duties of the judge advocate general are not generally known or understood by those in or out of the army. He is in a sense the keeper of the conscience of the commander in chief. It is he, who, like the chancellor of old, relieves against the hard decisions of general court-martial.

Broadly speaking his duties consist of administering military justice and counseling the military establishment on such matters as war risk insurance, admiralty and maritime questions, titles and government reservations, questions of statutory construction and the drafting of statutes of military law, advising on international law questions arising in connection with the movements of the military establishment at home and abroad. He advises the war department bureau and the department chiefs as to accounts, contracts and fiscal affairs and collects and assembles war laws and advises the personnel of the army from the chief of staff to the newest recruit, as to their duties and rights incident to military service.

Who They Are.
To the proper performance of these duties, Oklahoma has given very substantial aid. She has lent her most distinguished counselors at law to the government and to the war department particularly. Lieut. Col. J. J. Hurley of Tulsa, born in the Choctaw nation and eight years a tribal attorney for Choctaw nation, with large experience as a captain of the militia of the Indian territory and as a captain in the Oklahoma militia after organizing an engineering company and an ambulance company came into the judge advocate general's department and greatly strengthened it as an assistant to the judge advocate general. He was later ordered overseas as the judge advocate with the first army of the American expeditionary forces in France. There, he has served with distinction from the very first. Maj. Richard A. Billups of Cordell and Maj. William E. Uterbach of Durant brought to the office of the judge advocate general a rich and diversified experience which has been invaluable to General Ansell in solving the thousands of problems which have been presented to him for solution. They have been on duty in the military justice division of the office. The duties of this division consist of rendering reports upon applications for clemency, the solution of problems relating to the disciplinary barracks and the government of military prisons; and all matters having to do with the discipline of the army. Cases where death or dismissal from the service are a part of the performance are reviewed by this division.

Both of these officers as former judges were possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to

Buddhists Have Religious Spies

Young Japs Pretend Conversion and Learn to Copy Christian Methods for Their God.

NEW YORK, March 1.—All the world is familiar with the military spy, but the religious spy is something new—at least to the occidental world. It has remained for the Buddhists of Japan to develop and perfect the religious spy system. According to Christian missionaries, the declaration of war by congress throughout the entire course of the war will be found running a thread of law upon which all great actions on the field of battle depended ultimately for strength. It is following this thread that the great machine that produced the power, momentum and assurance of the law, the judge advocate general's department, or the great law office of the army. Here, as elsewhere, Oklahoma has done her part.

ALCOHOLIC PROHIBITION FOR MEXICO COMES NEXT

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 21.—(By mail).—President Carranza is considering a plan submitted by the national board of health for the enactment of legislation that will gradually result in the complete abolition of the alcoholic liquor traffic in Mexico. He recently signed a decree increasing from 25 to 50 per cent the tax on pulque and other alcoholic beverages in Mexico City. The constitution, according to the officials of the board of health, gives that body powers to dictate health regulations that will result in the abolition of the liquor traffic. The board's program, as submitted to the president, provides for an elaborate campaign to suppress the liquor traffic gradually. High duties, early closing hours for saloons, temperance societies and various other means would be resorted to before the prohibitory regulations became fully effective.

For instance, says Mr. Vinton, "a young Japanese girl professed conversion and became an active member of one of our Sunday schools. She was one of the ornaments of the church, our missionaries thought, and they were quite proud of her."

Six months later she disappeared. For some time no trace of her could be found. Then we discovered she had been sent to learn all our methods. She had come so far as committing our best hymns to memory. Today she is back imparting these methods for the glory of Buddha.

"The Japanese now have regular Buddhist institutes for training men with all the methods used in our American Christian training schools. They have taken over our methods in every phase. They study in these institutes our church services and Sunday school activities."

"Some of the young men in training come to listen to our sermons, commit them to memory, and then preach these same sermons in Buddhist pulpits, only substituting Buddha for Christ whenever the word occurs."

"Another side of Buddhist competition with Christianity is in the schools. A wealthy man set up a splendidly equipped high school for girls in the neighborhood of one of our Methodist high schools. It was an opposition school and, having unlimited funds, it is now graduating more pupils."

"In many ways this Buddhist school is excellent, but I thought I could detect in the faces of the girls that it was not turning out the type of womanhood we were. A curious development, however, is that this school is becoming less and less a Buddhist institution every year. The Buddhist side is disappearing. Perhaps some day the school may become Christian."

Says League is Demanded.
NEW YORK, March 1.—The constitution of the league of nations is not dependent upon itself for success, but upon the spirit in which it is accepted by the United States, said Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, in an address here today before the league of free nations association. The league might not end war, but the nations demand the experiment.

EMPLOYERS HELD LIABLE FOR CRIME OF FOREMAN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 1.—Because a foreman quarreled with a man about company business and then killed the man, the foreman's employers are liable, according to a decision by the Arkansas supreme court. The court ordered the Chicago Mill & Lumber Co. to pay $3,000 damages to Mrs. Minnie Bryans, the widow.

John Bryans, a hauler, came to the mill on business. The foreman accused him of loitering mill property. The quarrel followed. Mrs. Bryans brought suit against the company and in the first trial failed to recover damages. The case was reversed by the supreme court and a new trial ordered.

The court's ruling on the first appeal was that if Bryans was slain as a result of a controversy which had ceased and then had been renewed by the foreman, pertaining to the company's business, the concern would be responsible, unless the killing was in self defense.

The jury found that it was not self defense and that the quarrel, had been renewed by the foreman concerning company business. Accordingly a verdict was returned for Mrs. Bryans. The supreme court affirmed the judgment.

The foreman was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to 21 years in the penitentiary, but in another trial the penalty was reduced to seven years.

Hungarians Call Election.
LONDON, March 1.—The Hungarian cabinet has decided to issue orders for the election of a new constituent assembly to take place during the first part of April over the whole country regardless of enemy occupation, according to a Reuters dispatch from Budapest. This step was considered necessary in view of the government's foreign policy, it was said.

IT'S NO SECRET where she got her color. Many women, perhaps your neighbor, will tell you that she got her wonderful color, her vivacious spirits, her strength and health by taking a "temperance" tonic, known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Probably no man in America was ever better qualified to successfully treat the diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. The cases that came to him run into many thousands, giving him an experience that rarely comes to any one man. Dr. Pierce found that in nearly every case there were certain vegetable growths which rarely failed to give prompt relief in those feminine disorders from which so many women suffer. He combined these roots and herbs into a temperance medicine that he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is precisely what it was. This medicine is sold in both liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. Favorite Prescription is a distinct remedy for women and acts directly upon the organs that characterize the sex. It is not necessary to take a long course of treatment with this standard medicine. A weakly, sickly, back-ache, headachy, nervous, despondent woman, with regular or irregular pains—with feminine disorders that come in youth or middle age—is pretty sure to find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the exact remedy that her condition calls for, and to find it after a very few doses are taken. Why women should allow themselves to stay sick when a very little money spent for this remedy will probably make them well, is something no one can explain.

in Aluminum Mold values, for every end label you send us this week from a package of Jiffy-Jell. The end label must be the one which mentions the flavor. See picture. The flavor must be either Loganberry, Pineapple, Lime or Mint. Labels on our other flavors count for 10 cents each, but the four flavors mentioned count for 20 cents each. Think of that. Each Jiffy-Jell package costs 12½ cents. Yet the end label is worth 20 cents this week toward these molds.

There are four flavors in Jiffy-Jell which are particularly delightful. Two are dessert flavors—Loganberry and Pineapple. One is Lime-Fruit flavor, for salads. One is Mint, for garnish jell.

This remarkable offer is made, for one week only, to induce every home to try them. We are making each 12½-cent package worth 20 cents on our pure aluminum molds.

Fruit Essences Sealed in Glass
Jiffy-Jell fruit flavors are made from the fruit itself. They are essences condensed from fruit juices. They come sealed in glass vials—a bottle in each package—so they keep their fresh-fruit taste.

The flavors are rich and abundant. We use half a pineapple to make the flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert. We use 65 big Loganberries to flavor another. So Jiffy-Jell desserts are real-fruit dainties. They have all the delights, all the healthfulness of fruits.

That is where Jiffy-Jell differs so vastly from the old-style gelatine dainties.

12½c Per Dinner
Jiffy-Jell comes ready-sweetened, in proper color and acidulated. You simply add boiling water, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool. One package serves six people in mold form, or 12 if you whip the jell—all for 12½ cents. Think of that for a rich, fruity dessert—less than a fruitless pudding costs. And the ten flavors give you variety.

Also Salads
Lime-fruit flavor makes tart, green salad jell. Serve with your salads or mix the salads in before cooling. Or mix in meat scraps and make a delicious meat loaf.

Mint flavor makes a garnish jell, rich in fresh-mint flavor. Serve with roast lamb or cold meats.

You Need Them
You need these real-fruit dainties at this season. Everybody needs fruit daily. Here you get it in the finest form at very little cost. Learn what it means to you.

Accept the offers we make below. It will introduce our finest flavors to you. After that, you will serve Jiffy-Jell in some form at least three times weekly. And you will know a new delight.
